Biden Goal: Corrupt Kids and Override Parents through Title IX Changes

What's the greatest threat to parental rights in the coming school year? It may be the Title IX changes proposed by the ever-devilous Democrats.

What better way to bring Mom and Dad in line than to emotionally and sexually kidnap their children during the school day, using concocted regulations and federal dollars?

Biden is attempting by executive order to radically alter the definition of the word "sex" used in the 1972 discrimination law (Title IX) that opened the door to women's sports, among other opportunities. By a lawless distortion of presidential authority, Biden wants the meaning of "sex" in Title IX to cover "sexual orientation," "gender identity," and "pregnancy or related conditions."

The US Department of Education is taking public comments on this until September 12. Then they will be free to do whatever they had already decided. But we don't have to let this scheme take us by surprise. And there's always the chance (Please, God!) that a miracle will prevent the implementation of this tyrannical order they could never get passed by legislative means.

Do Children Matter to America Anymore?

When we compromise on issues like sexuality, authentic racial equality and religious freedom, we can expect huge losses in the fight to protect children from corruption. The only way we will turn this tide is to stand strong.

Mission America is not giving in to cultural madness, because God's truth has not changed, so our faith should not, either. That's why our reach is expanding. We live in very challenging times, but darkness provides more opportunities for light to shine even brighter.
