School Corruption & Propaganda Calendar, Updated for 2022-23 School Year

We've updated our popular propaganda events' calendar so parents can be forewarned about public school observances. We begin with "Banned Books Week," the attempt to justify any trash that publishers want to peddle to our kids. It's September 18 - 24, 2022— This year the American Library Association makes no secret of its affinity for all things "LGBTQ" by naming George M. Johnson as the honorary chair of BBW. Johnson, who wants people to use the pronouns "they/them" for him, is the author of All Boys Aren't Blue, which glorifies teen sexuality including homosexuality and gender deviance.

According to the ALA, it was the third most challenged book in 2021. The fact that the book also deals with race is not the reason for community objections. Read the rest of our article for all the updated events which we hope don't show up in your school. WARNING: graphic content

Huge Threat to Parental Rights in Schools: Title IX Changes-- Act NOW!

What's the greatest threat to parental rights in the coming school year? It may be the Title IX changes proposed by the ever-devicious Democrats. NOTE-- There's still time to tell the Biden administration what you think. Click link below for action steps. Biden is attempting by executive order to radically alter the definition of the word "sex." By a lawless distortion of presidential authority, Biden wants the meaning of "sex" in Title IX to cover "sexual orientation," "gender identity," and "pregnancy or related conditions."

Send your comments about this lawless proposal by SEPTEMBER 12-- click link below for more. [PHOTO- this immoral, unscientific graphic is used to convince smaller children that gender is "fluid."]
