Support Gender Integrity in Ohio Schools: Take ACTION

From Kirsten Hill, member of Ohio State Board of Education: My friend, Brendan Shea, a fellow member on the state board of education, has submitted a resolution to the state board of education which addresses the expansion of Title IX, pushing back against it. [Read the resolution in the full article. Click below]

SUPPORT truth. Support this resolution.

It would be great for this resolution to get your support via written and/or oral testimony to the board. From my observations of the board, public testimony can be highly impactful on board members' votes.

I am fairly sure that you are all very concerned about what Ohio's children are being taught in Ohio schools. The latest most-egregious thing we see is the proposed expansion of Title IX ...This expansion of Title IX and implementation in Ohio schools who take Federal money, essentially, would criminalize / demonize those who do not go along with this woke ideology. School Corruption & Propaganda Calendar Updated for 2022-23

We've updated our popular propaganda events' calendar so parents can be forewarned about public school observances. We begin with "Banned Books Week," the attempt to justify any trash that publishers want to peddle to our kids. It's September 18 - 24, 2022— This year the American Library Association makes no secret of its affinity for all things "LGBTQ" by naming George M. Johnson as the honorary chair of BBW. Johnson, who wants people to use the pronouns "they/them" for him, is the author of All Boys Aren't Blue, which glorifies teen sexuality including homosexuality and gender deviance.
