Ohio Press Network, Hilliard., OH-Parents of students in Hilliard City Schools are threatening to sue in federal court if the district fails to provide adequate answers by October 17 to several questions parents have about school policies. They also want to know if there is political activism going on inside Hilliard schools stirred up by an LGBTQ+ organization.

Parents are concerned the district is allowing manipulations of students to manifest gender dysphoria symptoms at school and encouraging them to transition to a sex opposite their biological birth.
