In Ohio, Some Schools Teach Abstinence. But Many Don't -- Yet It's the Law

We are very blessed in the state of Ohio to have a law that requires public schools to teach that abstinence until marriage is the standard for sexuality, and steer students away from early sexual activity.

But how faithfully do schools follow this law? The Ohio bureaucrats conduct an annual audit. We are analyzing their results, because somehow we did not believe that, out of 611 school districts in Ohio, 607 were "compliant" with a clear abstinence until marriage message. Hm m m m m....

The good news is that several hundred Ohio schools are apparently compliant. Keep Calling/Emailing Gov. DeWine to Sign SAFE Act for our Kids

Ohio House Bill 68, the SAFE Act/SAVE Women's Sports Act, passed both the House and Senate last week with only minor changes. This is terrific news!! Praise the Lord for opening the doors for this to happen.

Now, what will Governor DeWine do? He has about 5 more days to sign the bill or else it automatically becomes law. Or...he could choose to veto it. But gender experimentation and sports' discrimination against authentic girls must stop.

TAKE ACTION: Contact the Governor's Office and ask him to please sign this important bill!! 614-466-3555 or go HERE.
