Dublin (OH) School District Presents Child Sexual Abuse Symptoms as "Normal"

By Linda Harvey

It's outrageous enough that school after school now positions "LGBTQ" identities and behaviors as positive inborn traits akin to race. That deception is doing untold harm to vulnerable children.

But now clinical symptoms of child sexual abuse are being presented as normal in at least one school in Ohio.

A presentation made by two social workers on staff with the Dublin City School District described sexual fantasies and curiosity about sex as "normal development" in children 5 to 7 years old. Following the release of its controversial Title IX proposal in 2022, the DOE has aggressively promoted the transgender agenda, which has had the effect of:

1. Weakening the authority of parents: "Teachers know what is best for their kids because they are with them every day." – DOE Secy. Miguel Cardona, May 19, 2023.
  2. Promoting harmful and irreversible "gender transitioning" among under-age children, without parental knowledge or consent.....
