OH GOP Politicians Take Big Money from Teachers' Unions

by Linda Harvey

As Ohioans consider candidates during this election year, let's think about our values and who we will support.

For instance, most of us are well aware by now of the pro-abortion, far left, pro-Democrat, pro-LGBTQ, pro-BLM/ DEI actions of America's teachers' unions: the National Education Association (NEA) and American Federation of Teachers (AFT). Their huge coffers fund issues and candidates proudly opposing biblical values.

I decided to check out whether any Ohio Republicans accept teacher union donations.

It turns out, some do. Below are the results of our search for recent Ohio Republican lawmakers accepting union funds over the past few years.

Ohio Professor Objects to DEI, Loses Job

From American Family News

A university law professor, who says he was fired for objecting publicly and repeatedly to DEI policies at Ohio Northern University, has filed a lawsuit against the school.

Dr. Scott Gerber, who taught at the school's College of Law, was pulled out of class and escorted off campus in April 2023 by campus police officers.... According to Gerber, who is represented by American First Legal Foundation, his firing was political because he took repeated actions about DEI – diversity, equity and inclusion – policies on the campus that affected hiring practices.
