Schools Advocate Revolution Using SEL

Linda Harvey

Recently, I was pondering the clear and present danger to America and the global threat to western civilization. I asked myself, what is holding back the flood of tragedy? What is keeping at bay widespread socialist/Islamist Christian and Jewish persecution?

Not much is holding it back. What's emerging is truly a color revolution — and the color is red -- for blood.

It makes me so sad.

So in America, the public schools are churning out obedient, illiterate, sexually corrupted global citizens who will go along with much of this. Many are comfortable with violence. They know little about the unique protective qualities of America, and in fact, many hate the America they have been told is a destructive colonizer. What's causing this? SEL, social emotional learning.

Education's Future is Doomed if Unions Stay in Power

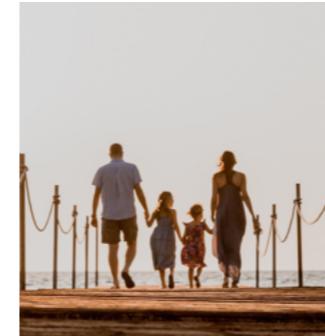

*Roger Ruvolo
For Kids and Country*

Together, the NEA and Weingarten's AFT collect hundreds of millions of dollars a year in dues from teachers and use it not for the betterment of public education, but to push this poison into American society. More sadly—and more ominously—they push it into our classrooms, too. The so-called teachers' unions and many state legislators work together to corrupt curricula, engender illiteracy (and at this, they are succeeding wildly), and push racism, historical revisionism, class warfare, and transgenderism onto the youngest and most vulnerable of our population.
