Transgenders and Tragedy

Linda Harvey

The body count is growing-- murders at the hands of gender pretenders. Are these confused people disproportionately prone to violence? Unless they receive help to walk away from these delusions, the clear answer is yes.

An article in 2024 in The Epoch Times had this headline: “Concerns Grow Over Links Between Transgenderism and Violence.” The article reviewed the little-publicized fact that some recent mass murders were committed by people who identified as the opposite sex with a history of a “volatile cocktail of mental health issues and body-altering chemicals.”

The pattern is becoming clear, and still Democratic Party operatives (Walz, Frey, etc.) are more concerned about sticking to their insane agenda (gun control, no “transphobia”) than saving the lives of American children.

It's not about guns. It's about evil in the hearts of humans. How does it get there? How can it be removed?

Do You Have a Gender "Transition" Horror Story to Tell?

Let the FTC Know by September 26

From Do No Harm
"Following its workshop on the deceptive practices employed by the child transgender industry, the Federal Trade Commission (FTC) is requesting public comments to learn directly from consumers — you and me — how these practices have harmed and deceived them personally. So many of us have been lied to in our most vulnerable and desperate moments. We've watched our children struggle with sex confusion, while the healthcare professionals that we trusted promised so-called 'gender-affirming' care was the only solution that would keep our children alive."
The FTC will be accepting public comments through September 26, 2025....If you'd like to submit a comment to the FTC, please click below for instruction.

Read Wholesome Books!

Get Ready for "Banned Books Week" and More School Propaganda Events

We've updated our "School Corruption and Propaganda Calendar" published to help parents navigate the minefield of deceptive "events."

One of the first will be "Banned Books Week," which tells students that even pornographic material should be allowed as part of "diversity, equity and inclusion." Such twisted messages need a good dose of the truth instead. Direct children toward wholesome, uplifting novels and other media.

And watch for the many problems embedded in October "LGBTQ" History Month. We have much more coming out about that in the coming weeks.
